About This Site.

Welcome

I had a man share with me that when he found this site he was elated. He stayed up late into the night reading the site and watching the movies. He read and watched for days; he couldn't stop because it was wonderful to hear the truth and to know what the Lord expected of him. Once he had finished the entire site his excitement began to change to sadness. His sadness grew and his wife asked him why he was upset. He was not able to give her an answer, but while he was sleeping, the Lord told him in a dream it was like eating the book in Revelation 10, being sweet in his mouth and bitter in his belly. So don't be surprised if this happens to you. Christians don't really know the questions they should be asking God! We didn't!

Revelation 10:

9 And I went to the angel, and said to him, Give me the little book. And he said to me, Take it, and eat it up; and it shall make your belly bitter, but it shall be in your mouth sweet as honey. 10 And I took the little book out of the angel's hand, and ate it up; and it was in my mouth sweet as honey: and as soon as I had eaten it, my belly was bitter.

Allegory

On January 8, 2007, a word was given for the Body of Christ. It starts out saying:

Is an allegory a difficult thing?

And is walking the walk set before you a difficult thing?...

(See the whole word)

When I heard from the school teachers in our group what the word allegory meant, I was elated. I told them this is one of the ways the Lord had taught me to look at dreams and visions. I had been considering possible interpretations of dreams and visions this way for years.

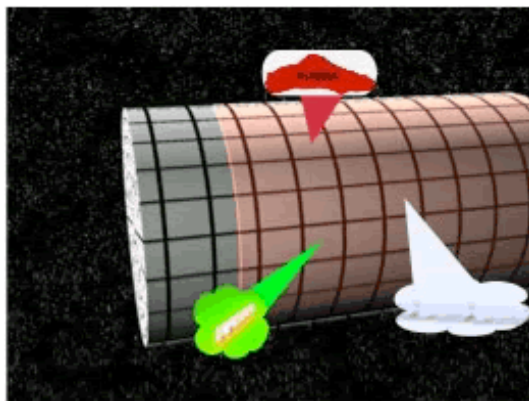

Basically an allegory is a presentation of some sort using symbolism to produce a message. The picture or message presented will usually have absolutes in it. The Bible presents a picture and there are absolutes in it. Because this site is full of dreams and visions, it is important to have some concept of what an allegory is. Parables are allegories.

Through the years the Holy Spirit has given people both inside and outside of this ministry dreams or scenes that were lived later. I personally have found myself in situations where I knew I was living a scene given to me earlier. This is a wonderful thing to have happen because the Lord is revealing the truth of that situation in the scene given.

A Bigger Picture

To really understand a bigger picture of what this site is about we must bring together information the Lord has given over a long period of time. This picture is much larger than the purpose presented on the site of bringing the spotted church to spotlessness. To begin with, I share a scene given to me on September 28, 2007:

I was looking at a cylinder in space that was like a wire cage but most of the squares were filled with pictures. It reminds me of the Hubbell telescope, but the point was that all the pictures were not filled in yet.

I knew this scene was about this website because God had dealt with me the same way before concerning space and cyberspace. He was showing me I had a ways to go in finishing the website. I also knew He would have to give the remaining pictures, just as He has given all the pictures on the site up to now. This refers to the fact that God instigated or brought up everything that needed to be on this site, not us. It was a very humbling day when the Lord got after me for calling the site “our site.”

The reason the Holy Spirit depicted the cylinder to look like the Hubbell telescope is because the Hubbell looks deep into space to see what men have never been able to see before. In like manner this site takes you into the deeper things of God because the information is revealed by the Holy Spirit, at His will.

1 Corinthians 2:10

But God hath revealed them unto us by his Spirit: for the Spirit searcheth all things, yea, the deep things of God.

The Lord wanted to reveal the seriousness of the spotted church's situation, so in the midst of writing this article the Holy Spirit gave me a dream. (Remember, the Lord told me that what He reveals to me in the night is not my judgement but His and that He is not a critical God but a God of absolute truth. The Lord is not being critical but revealing how it is, truth. ) The scene:

December 14, 2007

I was in a harlot/spotted church and they were beginning to eat. It was smorgasbord and some people had already started eating when I decided to give in and eat with them, mainly because they were insisting. I picked up a plate and immediately someone, very proudly, slapped two big pieces of what appeared to be meat on my plate. Upon examination I saw that it was two pieces of cake, made to look like meat. I walked by the large numbers of different kinds of cakes they had to serve. Then I started having close-ups of the remaining dishes. I saw a grey Jell-o, so I took some just to be polite. (Believe me, it didn't look good to eat.) Then I saw another Jell-o with a very few small slices of peaches scattered throughout it. (They were so sparse they may as well have left them out.) I took some and then was hoping for some vegetables. I looked at my plate, knowing it was all sugary and held no life sustaining nutrition. The next item was a vegetable, white mashed potatoes but not in a container. They looked like a ball just sitting on the table. I knew they turned to sugar in our bodies. I had reached the end of the dishes of food and I realized this church had nothing nutritional to eat, nothing to chew on.

The main message of this scene (allegory) is that the spotted church thinks they have meat to eat and are proud of it. The Lord is revealing that they don't have meat nor any life sustaining food for people to eat. The ball of white potatoes probably has to do with playing games instead of learning how to walk in the Lord's Kingdom. This site will give you something to chew on, plenty of it. It will take you into the depths of God, into what He is doing now and what He is going to do.

When the Great Mural vision was given by God I had no idea that it would have something to do with a website. In the scene it revealed that the Lord was going to repaint the concave picture that already existed in King James time. I had no idea what the symbols of concave and convex meant nor that God was going to speak to me concerning recorded scripture in the future.

Book of Remembrance

We mentioned in the movie presentation, Demonstration of God's Covenant, the Book of Remembrance God promised for those who fear Him in the book of Malachi. It is important to understand what the Book of Remembrance is and how it relates to this site.

Malachi 3

16 Then they that feared the Lord spoke often one to another: and the Lord listened, and heard it, and a book of remembrance was written before him for them that feared the Lord, and that thought on his name. 17 And they shall be mine, said the Lord of hosts, in that day when I make up my jewels; and I will spare them, as a man spares his own son that serves him. 18 Then shall you return, and discern between the righteous and the wicked, between him that serves God and him that serves him not.

In the Bible, the day that the Lord makes up His jewels refers to His Spotless Bride, the Day of the Lord, which we have all entered into whether we believe it or not. A Book of Remembrance is a book about something lost or forgotten. Years ago the Lord spoke to us about principles of His Covenant being lost over time. So we see why God revealed that a picture needed to be repainted that existed in King James time. That refurbished concave picture in the mural vision is the Book of Remembrance God promised in His Word.

Part of the reason for the distorted picture existing in King James time was revealed when the Lord told me, "No man can translate without getting his doctrines in it." This really shook me up because I had assumed that God had kept the Bible to be what it was supposed to be, even though I knew it contradicted itself in places. Now I understood why! God had taken my sacred cow idea from me.

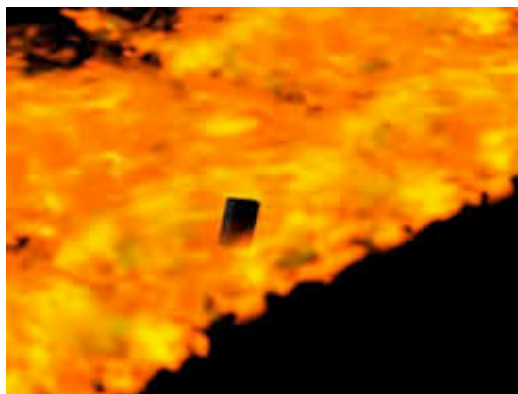

sacred cow: noun

an idea, custom, or institution held, esp. unreasonably, to be above criticism

Bibles

To further paint this disturbing picture concerning Bibles, the Holy Spirit gave me this scene years ago when God first brought this group together. I have held this information for all these years to finally realize I had no right to withhold what the Holy Spirit had revealed to me concerning Bibles.

In the scene I was walking along the side of a large bed of red hot coals when I saw a Bible that would not burn in the coals. I reached in and pulled it out of the fire. All the other Bibles had burned up.

The reason I have not shared this information on this site before is because I in no way am suggesting that everyone buy this particular Bible. It is big and expensive, but on the other hand it is important to understand why this Bible was hot in my hand, but would not burn up. The fact that it was hot means it is not perfect either, but certainly much more accurate than others!

This particular Bible is presented as a literal translation of the scriptures. It has the Greek and Hebrew words with both translations word for word. It admits in the preface that no foreign language could adequately capture the fulness of expression of either Hebrew or Greek. So we see that even this Bible fits into the truth God spoke to me, "No man can translate without getting his doctrines in it." We also see the need and importance of the Book of Remembrance promised by God to those who fear Him in the book of Malachi.

Before we go on, here is the name of the Bible I pulled out of the fire in the vision.
(Note: I carry a Bible that is easy to carry, not this one.)

The Interlinear Bible

Hebrew - Greek - English

By Jay P Green, Sr. With the English translation in the side column. Copyright 1985

(If you get one, do not get the one with the King James in the side column.)

This Bible scene was the first indication in my life that there was a problem with Bibles. The scriptures say the Holy Spirit is the teacher of God's word and He can teach you out of any Bible if you know the mechanics of how He teaches. The Lord has presented this information so His people will realize the truth of part of why there are so many doctrines of men that are so incorrect. This brings us back to the fact that the Holy Spirit is our teacher and one must understand how He teaches in order to be taught by Him. This is why God taught us how the Holy Spirit teaches and had us put the information on this site.

It is a Mural

It has taken years to build this site, all given by the Lord, little by little. It presents a mural with many smaller pictures on different subjects. The Lord told us some people will see and some won't; we were to be glad for those who do see.

I think it important to say that the Site by Categories page in the left column is a good place to see the parts of the site you may have missed. And please understand that the movies are important in that there is information in them that is not in the books. Also know there is information in the books and writings that is not in the movies.

It is a huge blessing to see what the Lord is doing with this site all over the world. It really is time for His Spotless Bride, His Kingdom to be established on earth, His way of doing things, His way of holding meetings, and His way of commanding His army. He is bringing it forth. Are we His disciplined ones?
