

Lesson 70 Mankind doesn't know their place!

About this time each year we all start to think about our "New Year's Resolutions". We begin to prepare a list of those things in ourselves that we perceive need improvement. I guess this is because the beginning of a New Year seems like the perfect time to start something new. With all this in mind I decided to see what the dictionary had to say about resolutions. This led me to the root word, resolve.

RESOLVE – Definition: to break up, to change by disintegration; to reduce by analysis; to cause resolution of; to deal with successfully, to clear up, to find an answer to; to make clear or understandable; to reach a firm decision about; to declare or decide by a formal resolution and vote.

To Reduce by Analysis

What are we to analyze? We can analyze our behavior of course; thinking back over this past year of our ups and downs. We can review the words we've spoken, the actions we have taken. It is good to be reflective. The Lord even encourages it during Yom Kippur and the Day of Atonement. But I believe this should by no means be our only area of review. I believe this is an excellent time to review the words we have received from the Lord. From the THH website:

1 John 2:27 But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him.

This scripture says "but as the same anointing teaches you of all things." In other words, the Holy Spirit teaches you about everything and you don't really need man to teach you anything. This is a truth.

Consequently, review of His words is important because the Holy Spirit continues to reach out to us and teach us. And the Lord has taught us to keep a record of what the Holy Spirit has revealed to us through words, dreams and visions etc. We should in no way underestimate the importance of a flow book and of flow-charting. It is how the Holy Spirit teaches; as noted in the THH website <http://www.takehisheart.com/flowchart.htm>

The Bible is a flow chart, written through men by the Spirit of God. We must remember God's ways are not our ways. A flow chart has everything to do with how the Holy Spirit teaches, leads, directs, and confirms God's Word to us, individually and corporately. To keep a flow chart and use it correctly is to, "compare spiritual with spiritual," continually allowing God free flow in what He wants to reveal.

1 Corinthians 2:12,13

Now we have received, not the spirit of the world, but the Spirit which is of God; that we might know the things that are freely given to us of God. Which things also we speak, not in the words which man's wisdom teacheth, but which the Holy Ghost teacheth; comparing spiritual things with spiritual .

It is also the way to be able to add line upon line and precept upon precept concerning the Holy Spirit's leading and teachings, both in the church and in our personal lives. It's a vehicle the church is to use to bring together the "here a little, and there a little" into a picture of what God wants to reveal.

Isaiah 28:10

For precept must be upon precept, precept upon precept; line upon line, line upon line; here a little, and there a little:

It is a simple way you, as an individual or a corporate body, can follow after the "things of the Spirit" and not fall into condemnation. The existence of a flow chart allows a corporate body or an individual to walk in peace in the middle of a war!

Therefore, from all of this I have discovered, of course, that the first step in making a resolution involves a review, an analysis of information received.

As we believe we receive guidance from our Father in heaven through our time spent with Him; then it just naturally follows that reviewing our flow books is an excellent place to begin our review. After all, the Lord sends us words of correction through our flow books; it is up to us to periodically read through them to gain insight. As we conduct a personal review of our words and actions for Yom Kippur and the Day of Atonement I think New Year's would be a great time to review and analyze what we have received from the Lord over the past year that still possibly needs to be implemented into our lives.

To Find an Answer

Once we begin our review the Lord will lead you to answers. He has confirmed this in the words He has given us. He can answer your questions, your confusion, your needs.

7/11/2010 MEETING – PRESENT: I AM, Bob and Cindy

What starts small becomes bigger, like apple seeds becoming an apple tree. More people will be returning to Me. Seeking after Me. This is good. Be prepared for answers.

You're on display. Fruits of the Spirit should be apparent in your life (love, joy, peace, faith, gentleness, kindness etc.). But this doesn't mean you allow the enemy in. Use righteous judgment; but in order to understand righteous judgment you must know me and my ways. That's why reading and studying is so important.

Remember, you are an instrument of the Lord. He is refining us. Review of your flow book will help you see His direction and guidance. It will help you find the answer, to reach a firm decision.

To Reach a Firm Decision

The third and final step of your resolution is to come to a firm decision. In the words above, the Lord encouraged us to make righteous judgment. The Lord has taught us from the THH website that if you have all of the evidence you are not judging but making sound decisions. To have all the evidence we need God's input. And He has broadened my understanding of judging by making me aware of the fact that one must gather all the evidence and all the scriptures on a subject to begin to see the true picture. This is a truth! When we have God's evidence we are not judging but making sound decisions based on His judgement.

Therefore, you are in effect setting a goal (an answer) for yourself that has come about as a result of your review and analysis. This is righteous judgment. But remember, in order for us to have this righteous judgment, we must have a relationship with Him, a knowledge of the Lord. From the THH website <http://www.takehisheart.com/judgingjudgment.htm>

Jeremiah 23:18

For who hath stood in the counsel of the Lord, and hath perceived and heard his word? who hath marked his word and heard it?

God is talking about standing in His counsel, which is the key element required to make sound judgements and be successful. It's the best way to get understanding. The more you stand in God's counsel the more you learn of God's ways and thoughts. You are then more able to make judgements based on God's will, not man's.

Coming to a decision is great but we want to make sure that we are following after His will. This is why His counsel is so important. You see we usually think of righteous judgment in regards to our decisions about others but I believe it is equally important in our decisions about ourselves.

Jeremiah 9:23,24

Thus saith the Lord, Let not the wise man glory in his wisdom, neither let the mighty man glory in his might, let not the rich man glory in his riches: But let him that glorieth glory in this, that he that understandeth and knoweth me, that I am the Lord which exercise loving kindness, judgement, and righteousness, in the earth: for in these things I delight, saith the Lord.

God is saying anyone who really understands and knows, realizes this fact, "That it is God who exercises loving kindness, judgement, and righteousness, in the earth." We as Christians are supposed to do the same, but we must remember it is God and only God who is able to do this perfectly. It is God who reveals true loving kindness for a situation. It is God who reveals the truth and is the perfect and true judge in a situation. Actually, without His input we just don't know the pure truth. God says we are not to glory in our own wisdom.

Therefore, I believe it is equally important to use righteous judgment when it comes to making decisions for yourself as well as others. The Lord has warned us against allowing self to make our decisions. And we all know how destructive unfair criticism of self can be. Seeking out the Lord's counsel through review of His words brings truth and His will into the review. Again, this is important because the Holy Spirit continues to reach out to us and teach us.

07/15/09 Meeting: Present – I AM, Bob and Cindy

Don't let self make decisions for you.

05/31/10 Meeting: Present – I AM, Bob and Cindy

Obedience requires giving up self and your will but many will not be able to relinquish self control. Don't be discouraged by others decisions in life. You are only accountable for your choices. It is only up to you to plant the seed. I will do the rest.

09/26/2010 CT MEETING: PRESENT - I AM, Bob and Cindy

You are in a battle and all of your actions are important. There is no day or time when sinful acts are okay. It is as if you are a knight (always noble, a servant and a warrior) except you are battling in the spirit realm. Be aware of your actions and the effect they have (good versus evil). You are always "up to bat". It is good to know and understand the importance of your actions. This knowledge will help you make the right decisions but you had to grow to this knowledge and now you are ready for it. There is a great responsibility in knowledge and following through with it but you are now ready for this responsibility (Learning opportunities occurred and you learned from them - gold tested and refined).

Silent Time 12-18-11 11:25 PM

Look to me for guidance; be willing to explore every option, and make wise decisions. It doesn't always come easy but hang in there.

Evening Meeting 12/20/11

Blessed Michael, you are blessed. Take heart Michael hard decisions have been made. Follow My Jesus leading in all.

Review of our flow books also revealed the importance of making the right decision in regards to others.

09/03/09 Meeting: Present – I AM, Bob and Cindy

You don't pass out judgement; you make decisions. Keep up with your instructions (The ones from him). You know what to do.

12/13/09 Meeting: Present – I AM, Bob and Cindy

What do I expect? I expect you to project my love because God is love. You won't forget judgement and decisions. God's love does not exclude this it includes it.

In conclusion, review of His words is important because the Holy Spirit continues to reach out to us and teach us through these words. Remember, The Bible is a flow chart, written through men by the Spirit of God. We must remember God's ways are not our ways. Likewise, a flow chart has everything to do with how the Holy Spirit teaches, leads, directs, and confirms God's Word to us, individually and corporately. To keep a flow chart and use it correctly is to, "compare spiritual with spiritual," continually allowing God free flow in what He wants to reveal.

As time passes we tend to forget all that He has spoken to us. You will be surprised by what He will reveal to you when you take the time to review your flow book. There is no telling what Resolutions you will be led to make.

2 Timothy 3:14-17

But you must continue in the things which you have learned and been assured of, knowing from whom you have learned them, and that from childhood you have known the Holy Scriptures, which are able to make you wise for salvation through faith which is in Christ Jesus. All scripture is given by inspiration of God, and is profitable for doctrine, for reproof, for correction, for instruction in righteousness, that the man of God may be complete, thoroughly equipped for every good work.

May The Lord Bless and Keep You,
Cindy
